

I'm Bryan Ellis. I'm a family physician here at Danville Family Physicians. And I have been with Ephraim for over 20 years. And I've been in Danville for 28 years.

Coke. As a southerner, you got to pick Coke.

Coffee. Drink too much of it.

Puppies by far. Big dog lover.

Either one. I'd rather have a phone call though.

Cardio. I like to jog. And that's one of the things I've done for many years.

Either one. As long as there's bacon on the side.

iPhone.

Do I have to choose one? I'll take either one, but I love chocolate cake.

Well, I think doing the dishes is worse.

Hamburgers.

I've never really had a good truck. So I would have to say a car.

Day at the beach.

Popcorn. Always a lot of butter.

I would like to say I prefer books because I think it sounds smarter, but really it's probably TV. I'd rather veg on the TV and watch something, particularly if it's sports.

Either one. I love to hike in the mountain, that's one of my favorite things. But a day at the beach is truly refreshing to me too. So I would say on that one it's a tie.

Countryside. No question.

Summer. No question.

Fan. Our room sounds like an ICU we have so many noise makers.

Pirates.
